

TELEKOM AUSTRIA GROUP

Telekom Austria Group

The Telekom Austria Group, which is listed on the Vienna Stock Exchange, is a leading communication provider serving approximately 23 million customers in eight countries in Central and Eastern Europe: Austria (A1 Telekom Austria), Bulgaria (Mobitel), Croatia (Vipnet), Belarus (velcom), Slovenia (Si.mobil), the Republic of Serbia (Vip mobile), the Republic of Macedonia (Vip operator) and Liechtenstein (mobilkom liechtenstein).

In 2011, the Telekom Austria Group employed about 17,000 people, generating revenues of approximately EUR 4.45 billion.

The broad portfolio of fixed line and mobile communication products and services includes voice telephony, broadband Internet, multimedia services, IPTV, data and IT services, wholesale and payment solutions.

Austria - A1 Telekom Austria

A1 Telekom Austria is market leader on the Austrian telecommunications market.

more Information

Bulgaria - Mobitel

In July 2005 the Telekom Austria Group acquired a 100% stake in Mobitel, the leading Bulgarian provider of mobile communications services, and successfully completed the integration process in 2006.

more Information

Croatia - Vipnet

Vipnet was established in 1998 and started operations in July 1999. In 2004, the Telekom Austria Group increased its interest in Vipnet to 100%.

more Information

Belarus - velcom

velcom is the second largest operator in Belarus. The company has been fully consolidated in the consolidated financial statements of the Telekom Austria Group since a 70% stake was acquired in October 2007. In October 2010, the Telekom Austria Group acquired the remaining 30% stake in velcom.

more Information

Slovenia - Si.mobil

Si.mobil is the second largest operator in Slovenia. In February 2001, the Telekom Austria Group acquired majority ownership of the company, which started operations in March 1999 as the country's first private mobile service provider. Since May 2006, the Telekom Austria Group holds a 100 percent interest in Si.mobil.

more Information

Republic of Serbia - Vip mobile

Vip mobile launched commercial operations in July 2007. The EBITDA comparable break-even target was reached for the first time in 2010.

more Information

Republic of Macedonia - Vip operator

Vip operator was launched in September 2007 as the third mobile communications provider in Macedonia.

more Information

Liechtenstein - mobilkom liechtenstein

mobilkom liechtenstein started operations in September 2000.

more Information